TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The man and the woman ate the fruit of the one tree that God had told them to avoid, and their shame overtook them (Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7).

Psalm — Have mercy on us sinners, O Lord (Psalm 51).

Second Reading — Death reigned from Adam to Moses, but now grace and life abound in Christ Jesus (Romans 5:12-19 [12, 17-19]).

Gospel — Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit and there he fasted for forty days and forty nights (Matthew 4:1-11).

WHO WE ARE AND WHOSE WE ARE

The Lenten season is a fresh invitation to explore again who God is, who we are, and what it means to be human. We begin by hearing the tragic story of the first humans in the book of Genesis. As Paul describes in Romans, our struggles started when our ancestors broke the bond of unity with God, sought self-sufficiency, and grew apart from their true purpose and identity. In Matthew's Gospel, we see how Jesus resists the lure of living outside of unity with God. Jesus rejects false promises of possessions, power, and status. Instead, he puts his life in his Father's hands. As our model for living as a fully human person, Jesus demonstrates that we are created to live in relationship with and trust in God, and in harmony with and for all of creation.

You are invited to join the Rosary Group, which meets every Tuesday evening 6—7 pm in the church. The Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet are prayed as well as a prayer for priests and the unborn, with special intentions to St. Anthony and a prayer of abandonment. All the prayers are from a booklet designed by Fr. Jose Manuel Escalante. For more information, call the church office.

Mark your calendar

Our Lenten Penance Service will be held on Monday, March 20th at 7:00 pm. Several priests will be available to hear confessions.

Is the Lord calling you?

Hang On

Three weeks before the death of Fr. Joseph Kentenich, founder of the Schoenstatt Movement, after the completion of Holy Mass, someone held out a Crucifix before him so that he could bless it. Father turned it around, pointed to the empty surface on the reverse side and smiled at the person before him. His gesture was understood and all present got the message without a word having been spoken.

Father Kentenich had often said: "Two should hang on the same cross. That is why there is still room on the other side. We bear our Saviour's cross and He bears ours all for the intention and the redemption of the world;" to draw mankind home to the Father. (from The Three Pillars)

During this week of Lent, come to the Adoration Chapel, sit in the presence of our risen Lord while you meditate on the crucified Lord on the Cross above the Monstrance. The reverse side is waiting for you. HANG ON!

The Chapel is open 12 hours a day, 5 days a week and every Saturday morning 8 am – Noon. Register as a Guardian for the hour of your choice on St. Joe's website or by calling 304-374-6170.

The following is the policy for scheduling Mass intentions: Our church receives requests to have Masses scheduled almost daily and we try our best to get them scheduled as soon as possible. We are able to schedule 4 months ahead. This practice has been in place for more than 4 years. The next intention we can schedule will be in the month of March for July 2023. Having intentions for a Mass is a sacrifice of $10.00 during the week and $20.00 on the weekend. Call the church office during regular hours if you have any questions.
