Charter for Protection of Children & Young People

The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston maintains an Office of Safe Environment in accordance with the USCCB's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. To Report Suspected Cases of Sexual Abuse of Children: The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston encourages reporting to civil authorities first and foremost if a crime has been committed. We also encourage utilizing www.reportbishopabuse.org to make a report about any bishop in the U.S. If you have reason to believe that a bishop has engaged in sexual misconduct, please contact civil authorities in the applicable jurisdiction and visit www.reportbishopabuse.org. To Report to Civil Authorities: Contact your local law enforcement; numbers will vary based on your location. If you believe someone is in immediate danger, call 911. To confidentially report any incidence of suspected child abuse or neglect, including sexual abuse, contact the West Virginia Bureau for Children and Families' Child Protective Services by calling the Child Abuse Hotline at 800.352.6513. To Report to Diocesan Authorities: In addition to civil authorities, the diocese encourages reporting to the appropriate church authorities. To report suspected cases of sexual abuse of children by personnel of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston to the Diocese, contact one of the following designees at 1.888.434.6237 or 304.233.0880: Mr. Bryan Minor, ext. 263; Mr. Tim Bishop, ext. 353; Sr. Martha Gomez, ext. 264; or Fr. Don Higgs at 304-685-2367. You may also call the Diocese's Office of Safe Environment at 304.230.1504.

Are you a veteran (or know of one) behind on rent or facing an eviction? If so, please contact HELPING HEROES, INC....a center for veteran resources. For more information, call 304-810-4291 or email helpingheroesorgbox@gmail.com.

COUNSELING AVAILABLE at St. Joseph the Worker Church!

Dr. Ann Stipe, PhD, has over 50 years of mental health nursing and counseling experience. She was a psychiatric nurse, RN, for 25 years before she returned to school and received her PhD in social work from the University of Maryland at Baltimore. She also has a certification in addictions counseling, CAC. She is licensed in West Virginia. Dr. Ann has retired and is doing pro bono work for the Church. If you would like to schedule an appointment with her, please contact the parish office.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

Children's Liturgy is a time for children to pray and learn about God's Word through child-friendly language and activities. All children from Preschool (3-5 years) through 4th grade are welcome to Children's Liturgy on Sunday at the 11:00 am Mass. This is a great opportunity for community service hours for middle school and high school students. Finally, if you're interested in becoming an adult volunteer, please contact the church office at 723-2054. Thank you!

If you would like a 2024 financial statement of your donations to the church for tax purposes, please call the church office during regular business hours.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Israelites show their faith by offering the LORD first fruits of the products of their new land (Deuteronomy 26:4-10).

Psalm — Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble (Psalm 91).

Second Reading — All who express faith in the risen Christ and confess that he is Lord will be saved (Romans 10:8-13).

Gospel — Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit and was tempted (Luke 4:1-13).

Prayer is one of our three pillars of Lent, (the other two being Fasting and Almsgiving.) Do you want to draw closer to Jesus this Lenten season? Come spend some time with Jesus in Adoration during Lent immediately following the Sunday 11:00 AM Masses. Meditation songs by Celia will be included.

Deacon Vince continues his visits to homebound parishioners during the week. If you know of anyone that would like to receive Holy Communion that is unable to attend Mass or anyone that would need a ride to Mass, contact the church office.

Please pray for the souls of
Diego Fernandez, Maria Veltri and Lois Carpini.
Eternal rest grant unto them,
O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Is the Lord calling you?

If you or someone you know is pregnant and needs help, there are several services available that are listed on the bulletin boards at the entrances of the church. You can contact the church office for a copy of these services as well.

Please pray for the needs of our parishioners who are in the hospital, homebound or ill. Call the church office if you want your name on our prayer line list or in the bulletin and/or you want a visit from a Priest, Deacon, or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion while in the hospital or homebound. If you have a sacramental emergency, don't hesitate to contact Father Dennis or Father Tony.

The Eucharistic Five-Step: 1st Step – Show Up

If you've spent time in Catholic circles for long enough you've probably heard of "making a holy hour." Modern spiritual giants like St. Theresa of Calcutta and Venerable Fulton Sheen both considered the daily practice of spending an hour in silence before the Blessed Sacrament the sine qua non of their apostolic work. Maybe you have tried making a holy hour before, or you are interested in making the practice a part of your spiritual regimen, but you have the burning question, "But what do I actually do there for an hour?" You are not alone.

Here are five basic "to do's" for those who are beginning the practice of the Eucharistic holy hour, or for those who feel stuck and want to go deeper in their prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

1. Show Up

This is the simplest but often the hardest step for those starting to make a holy hour. There are so many things competing for our time and attention, it can feel almost impossible to stop what we are doing, turn off our phones, and go spend an hour in silence before the Lord. But we must do this consistently if we are serious about learning to pray.

If nothing seems to be happening during your holy hours, try not to get discouraged. Be patient with yourself and with the Lord. Like the apostles who walked with Jesus every day for three years, but only slowly became aware of who he really was, it may take time for your heart to truly awaken to the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Show up, and you will see. Stay tuned for step number 2 next week! (Excerpt from article in Adoremus Bulletin by Fr. Connor Danstorm).

If you would like to practice step number one as a Guardian, we have an hour for you! You could even share an hour. Many Guardians are in need of a partner. Call the Adoration Committee at 304-374-6170 or scan the QR code below. You can also register during the Lenten Mission! Stop by the Adoration display table. There will be someone there to assist you!

The following is the policy for scheduling Mass intentions: Our church receives requests to have Masses scheduled almost daily and we try our best to get them scheduled as soon as possible. We are able to schedule 4 months ahead. This practice has been in place for more than 4 years. The next intention we can schedule will be in the month of March for July 2025. Having intentions for a Mass is a sacrifice of $10.00 during the week and $20.00 on the weekend. Call the church office during regular hours if you have any questions.

Some give by going...Some go by giving...Clay County and Gassaway, West Virginia. We serve people who live in their cars, or if they have houses, have no running water, gas or electric. Resources are unable to be accessed due to lack of education and the belief that there is no viable help for them. Father Thien S.V.D. is the pastor of Saint Thomas Catholic Church in Gassaway, West Virginia and the Risen Lord Mission in Clay County. Father is known for his kindness and for his work to help the poor in rural communities he serves. If you wish to give by going, the dates are as follows: Gassaway, West Virginia the 2nd Thursday of each month. Clay county, West Virginia the 4th Wednesday and Thursday of each month. If you want to go by giving, the needs are as follows: Hats, gloves, scarves, socks, diapers, wipes, soap, toothbrushes, and toothpaste. Monetary donations can be made to the Risen Lord Food Pantry. For further information, contact the church office at 304-723-2054.
