In addition to overnight lodging, host families will only be responsible for providing dinner for our pilgrims on the 20th. Pilgrims will also need transportation once from Sacred Heart of Mary or Sacred Heart of Mary to their host homes and back again the morning of the 21st. Men and women lay persons can stay under one roof provided they room separately. Clergy may only stay with clergy. You are welcome to house a minimum of two and a maximum of 15. Courage Apostolate is a ministry for Catholics with same-sex attraction who are striving to live faithfully to the teachings of Christ and His Catholic Church. Courage meets monthly in Morgantown for prayer, fellowship and support. The heart of Courage is the belief that sanctity is possible in everyday life. Through the Courage Apostolate those persons experiencing same-sex attractions are encouraged to deepen their Christian discipleship through participation in the sacramental life of the Church, particularly through the frequent reception of the Eucharist and frequent confession, as well as through a regular prayer life, witness, counsel, service, and self-giving. If you are interested in learning more, visit dwc.org/courage-apostolate/ or email couragedwc@gmail.com.

St. Catherine of Siena, Great Eucharistic Saint

April 29th is the feast day of St. Catherine of Siena, a 14th-century mystic and Doctor of the Church, who usually expressed herself in simple images so everyone would understand her. She used the image of a candle in describing the dispositions necessary to receive Holy Communion. Its gentle, warm glow is an image rich with meaning for Catholics, because Christ is the "Light" of the world and every Tabernacle and Adoration Chapel has a lighted candle next to Jesus.

Catherine points out that the wick must penetrate the core of the entire candle or it will not burn correctly or completely. It will stop where the wick stops, or become deformed if the wick is not straight. So, too, our faith must be straight, steady, consistent, permeating our entire lives. The wick of faith penetrates the candle so it can burn with the fire of love.

Sins are like water thrown on the flame. Instead of a rich warm glow, there is a hiss, smoke and death. The flame needs to be dried by the fire of true contrition and confession of sin. Conversion returns the warmth of faith, love and desire.

Catherine offers us a further way to remember the qualities needed for a fruitful Holy Communion. Conversion purifies us so we can see the Blessed Sacrament with the eyes of faith, receive it with the hands of love and taste it with the spiritual sense of holy desire.

People who love the Eucharist and attend Mass and Adoration frequently realize that only the Holy Spirit can stir up our desire for Jesus. For those of us who do not experience this spiritual hunger, it is never too late to turn to the Spirit in prayer.

Adoration is open 12 hours a day, Monday through Friday 8 AM – 8 PM and every Saturday morning 8 AM – Noon.
To register for an hour, please call 304-374-6170.

We are able to schedule 4 months ahead. This practice has been in place for more than 4 years. The next intention we can schedule will be in the month of May for September 2024. Having intentions for a Mass is a sacrifice of $10.00 during the week and $20.00 on the weekend. Call the church office during regular hours if you have any questions.

PACO'S CORNER

Is it shocking to read that those first disciples at the moment of the appearance of the risen Lord experienced unbelief and hardness of heart? After all, who ever in human history had risen from the dead?? The Lord Jesus promised them that he would rise from the dead on the third day. What the Lord was asking of them was that they would believe His word over their own subjective personal experience of reality. He wanted them to believe that he who became man and dwelt among them was able to rise above the curse of fallen man because he was the eternal Son of God, not merely man but also the Eternal Word.

The Church in her documents urges us to believe in the supernatural dimension of our faith. Our sight is more than physical; it is spiritual as well. We are to see with the eyes of faith. The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines this virtue as follows.

CCC. 77 Faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that he said and revealed to us, and that the Holy Church proposes for our belief, because he is truth itself.

We can and should ask our Lord for an increase in this virtue in our lives. We must know the living Lord in a truly experiential way and not rely solely on intellect. Why? Because God is not an idea, he is a living person. We believe in him! So then we can believe in all he has taught.

The Parish Community Committee of our Pastoral Council will be selling Mother's Day cards in the back of the church after Masses this weekend. A single Mass will be offered as a group for all returned cards.
